RFG-7 FILE AND USE

To:	All Insurers Transacting Business in the Province of New Brunswick
Subject:	RFG-7 File and Use
Date:	May 6, 2022

Section 267.2 (2) of the Insurance Act permits rates to be filed and used based on rules established by the NBIB.

Effective May 15, 2022, filings that are classified as RFG-7 (no changes, 0.00%) and previously required approval from the Board will now be classified as File and Use.

RFG-7 File and Use filings are allowed for the following classes of vehicles:

- Personal Use
 - all-terrain vehicles, off-road vehicles,
 - antique vehicles,
 - motorcycles and mopeds,
 - motorhomes,
 - snow vehicles,
 - trailers & campers, and utility trailers
- Public use Vehicles
 - ambulances,
 - buses – private, public, school,
 - interurban vehicles,
 - taxis & limousines

Insurers should review Information Bulletin 2017-003 for further details on Filing Requirements.

Please refer to the Board's website www.nbib-canb.org for the most recent RFG-7 Filing Guidelines.

If you have any concerns or questions regarding any of the above, please do not hesitate to contact:
